Professional Profile:

Justin Lossner graduated from the University of Northern Iowa in 2003 with a bachelor's degree in Real Estate and Finance. He then moved to Des Moines to work for Ferguson Commercial Real Estate to work as a sales agent. As an agent, he was responsible for working with clients who had commercial real estate needs. In June 2006, Justin took a position with Principal Real Estate Investors as an Acquisition Specialist. He helped Principal's clients purchase and sell commercial properties along the East Coast.

Justin is currently the Corporate Real Estate Services Manager of R&R Equity Partners, a subsidiary of R&R Realty Group. R&R Equity Partners is responsible for company acquisitions and equity attraction for both the parent company and its partners. R&R Equity Partners also provides clients with acquisition/disposition services, corporate real estate services, tenant representation and receiverships for lenders. Asset management and construction services are offered through affiliated companies.

Justin's experience in the commercial real estate industry has gained him valuable knowledge and expertise in institutional ownership, finance and valuation of real estate.
